B. F. Keith took possession of the Union Square Theatre at 12 o'clock Saturday night. It appears that there was quite a little fracas between Messrs. Keith and Greenwall. The former had paid a deposit on the lease, and at the last moment, when the final payment was to be made, it is said that he wanted to knock off a few hundred dollars, and declared that if this were not permitted the contract was off. There was a very lively time. Greenwall had fre in his eye—in both his eyes, in fact—and Keith was equally Irate. The affair was amicably settled, however. Keith paid down his money, and the theatre is now his.

All aspiring young poetesses should read, mark, learn and inwardly digest the story of Mrs. Carney. she wrote only four lines of verse, but they have been quoted probably by every one who speaks the English language. The lines were: "Little drops or water, little grains of sand make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land." Mrs. Carney is an American lady, and is about seventy years old. She wrote the verse nearly fifty years ago, when

A Sandwich Island Proposa'. The following is said to be the manner in which a Sandwich Islander proposes marriage when he falls a victim to the tender passion : The chief told her that if she would become his wife he would send a hundred sea ofters to her miends; that he would never ask her to carry wood, draw water, dig for roots or hunt for provision; that he would make her mistre s over his other wives, and permit her to sit at her ease from morning till night and wear her own clothes; that she should always have abundance of fat salmon anchovies and clk, and be allowed to smoke as many pipes of tobacco as she thought proper, together with many other flattering inducements. I d'ents bu Women

Nearly four hundred applications for patents were made last year by women. Force most a rong the inventions are those apperof their homes. But besides these there are new sky-signs, fire-escapes, comeras, balloons and not a few conveniences for the opposite sex in the line of improved braces, buttonhole Not only do the women seem able to originate the luens, but also to exploit their patents successfully defended her patent dress protector in open court, conducted the case herself and came off with flying colors.
